

Spring 2009 Gerald Hoefft Scholarship

The intent of the Gerald Hoefft scholarship is to recognize and financially assist talented and dedicated students interested in a career in Metallurgy and/or Materials. It was established to encourage qualified students to take an active role in promoting the field of materials through active participation in ASM.

Eligibility

- 1) Junior/Senior status in the Department of IMET or ME at Bradley University.
- 2) Student member of ASM international.
- 3) Minimum grade point average of 3.0/4.0.
- 4) Sorry, previous winners are ineligible!

Application requirements

- 1) A completed official application form;
- 2) An original copy of the University transcript;
- 3) Two letters of recommendation (one must be from a professor at Bradley);

Application submission

Submit application and supporting materials (three copies) by April 15, 2009 to

Iqbal Shareef
Department of IMET
403 Morgan Hall
Peoria, IL 61625
(309) 677-2981

Selection Process

The selection will be based on academic work, extracurricular activities, leadership qualities, and demonstrated interest in Metallurgy and Materials. A scholarship committee comprised of the two Student Outreach Committee co-chairs, other specially selected members of the Peoria Chapter of ASM, and Bradley Faculty Advisor will select the winner.

The Scholarship

The dollar amount will be $1000, awarded by ASM-Peoria Chapter.
