

An ASQ Section 1211 Special Technical Meeting

Building the First “Steamship” in History

by

John Laurence Busch

based upon his book

STEAM COFFIN

Captain Moses Rogers and

The Steamship Savannah

Break the Barrier

Historian and author John Laurence Busch will attempt to re-calibrate your mind before showing why the proposition of making the first crossing of the Atlantic Ocean on a "steamship" was met with a mixture of skepticism and fear. His presentation touches on the Quality, Engineering and Innovation involved in this endeavor.

When: Wednesday September 11, 2013 (Special Date)

Where: Barrack's Cater Inn, 1224 W. Pioneer Parkway, Peoria, IL 61615

This event is open to members of the general public as well as all engineering, quality and technical society members. A buffet dinner will be served. Mr. Busch will have some of his books and merchandise available for purchase at this event. Visit www.steamcoffin.com for more information and reviews.

Cost for the dinner and speaker: $15.00 for ASQ 1211 members, $18.00 for other attendees.
